➤ Brief of Project :

- ✧ Our project is about exploring the India's first heritage city(The city of Mahatma).
- ✧ This website is designed in Sublime Text Editor.
- ✧ It includes features like -
 - Attractive heritage places to visit
 - Famous food spots
 - About us
 - And much more
- ✧ It is supported in different browsers.

➤ Flow of the Website :

➤ Purpose :

- ✓ Ultimately it's a web base application. So any one can easily access it.
- ✓ Many a times it happens that when some outside travellers came to a different city, they may not aware of historical places, famous food spots and much more about that city.
- ✓ So we had made a website that depicts the heritage sites and street food of our city Ahmedabad, ultimately to help the tourists to spot the famous places rather wasting their time in a travel guide.
- ✓ Once a person visit our website, he/she might get aware about the places which should be visited most prior.
- ✓ It would make their work easy and much time saving.

The ashram also houses the famous Gandhi Sangrahalaya, a museum inaugurated by Jawaharlal Nehru in 1963. Popularly known as Sidi Saiyyed ki Jali, this mosque was built during the last year of the Sultanate of Gujarat. It's a masterpiece of architecture, with its carved jaalis being known worldwide. The carved stone windows of the mosque, depict the intertwining of the branches of a tree, popularly known as 'The Tree of Life'. It is used in the lattice patterns of Sidi Sayyed ki Jali, and is in fact used as the logo for the city of Ahmedabad. The carvings make for interesting silhouettes to be captured by photographers.

Pol Vistar

The word 'Pol' is derived from a Sanskrit word 'Pratoli'. The 'Pols' were known as 'Pada' in the Solanki period. It is said that when Sultan Ahmed Shah found the city, he stayed in the pol in the beginning. This pol was known as 'Mahurat Pol', which is now in Manekchowk. These pols are the real identity of Ahmedabad. Without proper knowledge of the pols, our knowledge of Ahmedabad is incomplete. In the old documents, names of Dhinkawa Chowky, Haja Patel's Pol, Nisha Pol, Bhanderi Pol etc. are mentioned. The construction of new pols continued and even increased during Maratha Rule. Many pols were constructed during the years 1760 to 1818. The number of pols constructed during this time was 360. The city has many big and small pols ranging from six house pol (Ghar-ni-Pol) to pols having about 3,000 houses (a big settlement). The biggest pol of Ahmedabad is known as Mandavi-ni-pol. At present, there are about 60,000 houses in 600 pols of Ahmedabad.
